

SIGNOR CRISPI.

The Italian Premier Said to Have Threatened to Resign

BECAUSE ONE OF HIS PET PROJECTS MEETS WITH OPPOSITION.

He Believes King Humbert Has Heard From Germany Regarding the Further Occupation of Abyssinia—The Emigration From Italy This Year Will Be Enormous—Other Foreign News.

LONDON, May 6.—Advices from Rome state that Signor Crispi in a conference Friday with King Humbert threatened to resign on account of the opposition made from several sources to one of his pet projects. He believes, with some probability, that the king has been advised from Berlin to put an end to the senseless idea of extending Italian occupation in Abyssinia, and asking the monarch if German influence was to be henceforward paramount in Rome.

Signor Crispi has intimated that Gen. Baldissera is lacking in dash and enterprise, and the general has requested to be released, frankly stating that too many lives have already been wasted in the vain attempt to gain a foothold in that country, the only portions of which tenable for white men are at such a distance from the coast as to make safe and regular communications impracticable. The minister of war, Gen. Bertolotti, also comes in for a share of the premier's wrath for the same reason. Officers of the staff and line who dread an exile to Massowah are almost unanimous at the prospect of sharing the fate of so many of their comrades who have succumbed to this pestilence in and around that filthy hole without even seeing an enemy, and it will not be their fault if Signor Crispi's term of office is not yet shortened by their influence.

An Apology.

LONDON, May 6.—A note has been received in Rome from the Spanish minister of foreign affairs, apologizing for the vehement language used in regard to King Humbert by the members of the Catholic congress sitting in Madrid. From good authority it is learned that a moderate answer was returned to the effect that nothing else than abuse was expected from that source, and that the Italian government feels indifferent upon the subject.

Italian Emigration.

ROME, May 6.—The emigration to the United States and the Argentine Republic from Italy will be enormous this year, but Italian economists are not agreed whether to rejoice or grieve over the depletion of a population which most of them say would not be superfluous if trade were not fettered by obstructions placed in its way by the state.

Rochefort Fails to Get a Permit.

LONDON, May 6.—M. Henri Rochefort has abandoned his journey to Bona, Algeria, for which place he started to bury his son, and returned to London. He had applied to the French government for a permit to go to Algeria for the purpose mentioned, and had been assured that the necessary papers would be forwarded at once. Upon his arrival at Dover, where he was joined by his daughter, he found no papers awaiting him, nor did they arrive during the succeeding two days of his stay there. Disgusted at the apparent indifference of the French authorities he gave up the idea of attending the obsequies of his son, and rejoined his fellow-exiles here.

Opening of the Exposition.

PARIS, May 6.—Royalists senators and deputies have announced that they will not attend the Versailles fete. As a matter of fact, it may almost be said that no invitations have been issued to the ceremonies attending the opening of the exposition. A very few of the more distinguished notables in Paris, and two representatives from each foreign section will be asked to receive President Carnot in the main vestibule. All charge d'affaires, except the Russian representative, will attend the inaugural ceremonies.

The Defeat and Death of King John.

LONDON, May 6.—Advices from Massowah give details concerning the recent death of King John of Abyssinia. It is stated that on the 10th of March he made an attack on the dervishes in their stronghold at Metemnah, but his forces were defeated, the king badly wounded. Two days afterward the dervishes made an assault and completely routed King John's army, killing the king and his generals, Ras-Area and Ras-Alulu. The king of Shoo then proclaimed himself negus, and marched upon Adowa.

Presented to the Queen.

LONDON, May 6.—Mr. Henry White, the American charge d'affaires, Friday presented at the Queen's drawing-room Hon. Fred. D. Grant United States Minister to Austria, and Lieut. Henry D. Borup, United States military attaché to the American legation at Paris. The Countess Bylandt, wife of the Netherlands minister to England, presented respectively Mrs. Grant, the wife of the minister, and Mrs. Borup.

Aims at Peaceful Revolution.

St. PETERSBURG, May 6.—Arrests of officers in this city connected with the Peaceful Political Revolutionary society continue. It is declared that the association is not aiming at attacks upon the person of the czar.

Notice of appeal has been given, and Mr. Conybeare has been admitted to bail. Professor Harrison, who was arrested on the charge of assisting besieged tenants at Gweedore, has been discharged.

BEATING THE GOVERNMENT.

An Extraordinary Pension Fraud Case Reported from Missouri.

St. LOUIS, May 6.—The principals in an extraordinary pension fraud case were arrested in different parts of the state Friday. Jacob Little, a Union soldier, died in Andersonville prison, and in 1871 his widow was awarded a pension of $35 a month. She married a man named Barnes and died in 1873. Barnes took his wife's pension papers and came to Pettis county, Mo., where he married a widow named Rogers. He induced her to impersonate the deceased Mrs. Little, which she did successfully and drew the pension. Barnes died in 1877, and the widow took up with a man named Ritt, who was soon in possession of the pension story. She wanted to quit drawing the money, but Ritt compelled her to continue the fraud until they separated about a year ago.

Then she ceased drawing the money and the government, desiring to know why the money was not drawn, started an investigation. After six months' hard work the conspiracy was unearthed and Mrs. Barnes was arrested Friday at Somerset, Ozark county, and Ritt was taken into custody in this city.

Shot by a Moonshiner.

RALEIGH, N. C., May 6.—Briscoe B. Bouldin, of Charlotte county, Va., deputy collector of internal revenue, with deputy collector Vanderford, and deputy marshal A. H. Temple, while searching for moonshiners Thursday, near Myatt's mill, Johnston county, seventeen miles south of Raleigh, was shot, perhaps fatally, by a moonshiner who had already surrendered, but upon getting Bouldin's back turned, commenced firing upon him. The first shot missed Bouldin, who, in turn, fired upon his prisoner. The prisoner then fired a shotgun at Bouldin, the lead striking Bouldin in the body, making terrible wounds. The moonshiner escaped before Bouldin's comrades came to his assistance. Bouldin is a son of Judge Bouldin, of Virginia. Intense indignation prevails over the affair.

The Tipton Hugging Skips.

TIPTON, Ind., May 6.—The fellow who has a mania for hugging women is supposed to be Silas Gard, a teamster, who came here from Rush county, Ind., several months ago.
